State of the Church

by Tim Tripp

In a few weeks, the President will address a joint session of Congress and the Supreme Court in an annual speech called the State of the Union Address. This nationally televised speech is our annual reminder of just how divided and acrimonious Washington DC is these days, and it doesn't seem to be getting any better.

I've always wondered what a 'State of the Church' speech would look like. I am not sure it would be good use of the sermon time, but a short article in the bulletin might just work. What is the 'state of the church'? As in most organizations, there are things at West Side that are going very well and some things that can be targeted for improvement.

First, the good news. In 2018, our Sunday Morning Attendance averaged 433, which is about the same as 2017 (430), but higher than 2016 (422). We also had 21 baptisms, which is slightly up from 2017 (20). Even better, to this point we have had 37 people either go through or are in process in our disciple making training and have several more planned for the upcoming year. Several of those having had the disciple making training are taking others through the process which is what we are striving to become: disciples who make disciples.

There are two primary challenges we continue to target for improvement. The first is financial. Due to the generosity of several of our members, large, end of the year donations were made to decrease our deficit dramatically from over $100,000 down to about $50,000. We owe a sincere debt of gratitude for those who stepped up to help out when we needed it most. The challenge continues to be in our giving for the future. If we continue to give at about the same rate we did last year, we force our leadership to make deep cuts in our commitments to things like missions, camps, children's homes, community development (benevolence) and possibly other areas as well. As we start off this year it is important that each one of us consider what we give and whether we can stretch a little more. Even an additional $10 per week per family would help out tremendously over time. Please, prayerfully consider how you can help.

The other area of challenge is in the depth of commitment of our regular attenders. We have a number of extraordinary ministries, involvement opportunities and outreach efforts into our church and our community. Those efforts are sustained and supported by the same 40 or 50 people here at West Side. We need to have more people who make a commitment to teach our children's classes, get involved with Monday Night for the Master, lead and host share groups, visit hospitals and nursing homes, get involved in Celebrate Recovery, Youth Ministry, CHRISTeens, disciple making and many others that I don't have space to mention. The opportunities are there, we need more people to get involved.

I'd say the state of the church is very good by the grace of God, but we can never be complacent. We must all measure what we can do to make West Side better. As we do, only then will be become the church God has called us to be.

DIOS LE BENDIGA! (God Bless You!)

by Aris Ortiz

Welcome to 2019! Why 2019? (According to some discoveries, will be 2023!) All around the world, few days ago, in every nation, they was celebrating the beginning of a "new year" (we too by the way!) but why 2019? Well, the whole world was saying (without understanding by a lot of people) or affirming that 2019 years ago, was the birth of the Son of God!! And is still counting already 6 days more! So, it is amazing how after 365 days, the whole world will do it again, and again, and again... but most of the world will not take in consideration the reason of counting another year will be so important after death. I'm so glad that we do understand the meaning why we are in 2019 now. Because 2019 years ago, our Savior was born here in earth (the one He created) The Verb was made "flesh" (like us) and He was bringing the gift of salvation and hope for eternal life in Heaven to all those who believe that that happened 2019 years ago! I do believe that The Son of God came from The Father for us, because of our sins and for those to be forgiven by the blood He shed at the cross when he die for me! Let us not forget my West Side Family why we are in 2019 and let's live "every" day of this year, thanking Him and showing that we are so thankful for that sacrifice!. Blessings to you!

LIFE

Life as a teenager is overwhelming with emotions and ever-changing bodies. There seems to be an ongoing battle of friendships along with self-identity. Throw in dating relationships, peer pressure, mood swings and all of this can have a feeling of a continual unbalance. If we can help our students through these rites of passages, not avoid them, our students will come out stronger than any of us can imagine. We design our Youth ministry programming to feed biblical truths that one day will solidify into a foundation that remains solid through life's experiences. When you get a chance talk about where and when you have seen God work in these life situations.
