God's Echo by Tim Tripp

Have you ever looked at a parent and a child and thought that their likeness was striking? My youngest daughter looks a lot like her mother. My kids all have little features that bear likeness to me, but Lizzy looks so much like my wife it is uncanny. Even more striking is the way my wife resembles her mom. When you see the two of them together there can be little doubt that they share genetic material. They have had perfect strangers walk up to them as they sat together and exclaim, "You two must be related!" My wife is like her mom in many ways besides physical resemblance. They both share a passion for cooking, they love anything Italian, they are both drawn to a good book and they share an abysmal sense of direction. They are both centered on spiritual things and have a faith that often surpasses my own. My mother-in-law just beams when something my wife does works out well, almost as if she had a little something to do with it...and in fact she did.

In the book of Second Corinthians, chapter four, the apostle Paul reminded his readers that Jesus was the image of God as well. In verse four of that chapter, he said, "The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God." Jesus could have been described as the 'mirror image' of God; not speaking of his physical appearance but his essence, his spirit, his heart and his passion. Jesus who was in every way God in the flesh, bore the exact image of God on earth so that we could see God in action as a man.

The great apostle continued in verse six of chapter four in 2 Corinthians where he took his point further with his audience saying, "for God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ." Then he continued in verse seven saying, "But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us."

Not only did Christ bear the image of God to the world, but we, those who are disciples of Christ, bear HIS image to the world as well! We do so imperfectly (as in the metaphor of the fragile, broken clay pots) but that only shows that the image we bear is not from us, but from God. Can you imagine walking through the streets of town and having people exclaim, "Hey the way you live reminds me a lot of what I have read about Jesus," Or "The way you helped that person reminded me of Jesus," Or "When that person criticized you, you just smiled and blessed them anyway. That seems like something Jesus would have done."

This image is not one to be taken lightly. The responsibility of bearing the image of Christ is enormous and requires that we attend each moment to seeking to bring Him glory and honor in how we live our lives. When they see us and hear us, they should be seeing and hearing him. In a very real way, we are His echo. God loves it when His children resemble Him and bear His image into the world. When we do something well the Father beams; almost as if He had something to do with it...and in fact, He did.

DIOS LE BENDIGA! (God Bless You!) Life before creation Part 2.
 by Aris Ortiz
 So, as I was mentioning last week, God created darkness away from the heavenly eternity, and in a deeper place in darkness, He created HELL. Every day we need to remain us about this reality, because in the actions of our daily life, we are connected to either, heavenly eternity or darkness, and in darkness we will be "pull" to Hell!. We are so blessed to know and to be in the Light, because being in darkness, there is no way to see where/which direction we are going. Darkness blinds us, deceives us- because who reigns in it, is Satan, "El Diablo" (the Devil) and all of his angels! Well, I was blind and in a complete darkness before, but when the Light, The Son of God, Jesus Christ shined in my heart, I was able to see. I was lost (without direction) but now I have been found! I do have a direction now: The Heavenly Place, and to be in the presence of God for eternity. I'm saved -if I remain faithful until death. And now, I'm aware about darkness and Light, Heaven and Hell that both places are eternal and my soul will end on one of those places, but that depend on today when am alive, and how I live the life that God has given me if I want to end in Heaven.
 Our invitation from God my West Side family, is to look for and keep walking in the LIGHT.

Love. Share. Disciple.

** Our Raising Arrows and KFC classes will not meet on Feb. 24th**

This is CHRISTEENS weekend, as you look around the room at the building it might seem a bit empty. It is exciting to think about how many of us are together with many other churches all because of the gospel message of Jesus. Our hopes are that the WS youth come aways asking questions and being more engaged in a passionate walk to discover the purpose and meaning around being Christ-like. John 13:35.

College Students!

One of the easiest ways to get involved at the CCSC is to come to our weekly worship — Midweek. Come worship, listen to a message from Scripture, and make new friends! Show up early for fresh cookies. Stay late and hang out. We always have something fun going on. Midweek happens on Wednesdays at 7PM.

REgroups also meet throughout the semester on various nights. These relations environments are great ways for you to grow in your faith while you are building friendships that will last for years. Our desire is to create a family for your to belong to so we can together grow as disciples of Christ.

Baptizms:

We have 2 new brothers in Christ!

Kenny Mahoney, one of our middle school teens, was baptized last Sunday.

and

Danny Jarra was baptized late Tuesday afternoon.

We rejoice together with these two new souls and welcome them into our family with open arms. Please pray for them both as they grow with us in faith.

Please also remember the Jarra family and the opportunity they have for Danny to enter the drug trial program at the Mayo Clinic.

Note of Thanks:

The Tarte family wishes to thank everyone for the cards and phone calls in regard to the recent passing of Wes's mother Shirley Tarte.
