MAKING DISCIPLES WHO MAKE DISCIPLES

May 28, 2017

by Tim Tripp

We have been working for some time on putting together a disciple-making resource to get the ball rolling on our disciple-making process. It was rolled out last Wednesday night in the Adult Class in Classroom 3. I am excited about it. The elders and I worked together to initiate a process whereby we might begin to encourage our members to gather others and begin to make disciples who make disciples.

It works like a Bible Study but has the objective of building relationships through Bible Study. There are sixteen study guides to correspond with the sixteen chapters of Mark. Each chapter study guide has a focus passage to read together, 2-4 discussion questions, an application discussion and an activity. The objective through the readings, discussions, and activities is to educate, guide and set an example of what it looks like to walk as Jesus walked.

My greatest hope for this is that it will become a routine part of the church culture at West Side. I would like for every member here to be able to walk through the process of helping someone to become a disciple or simply to walk in a closer relationship with Jesus. You might want to be trained on the process first and there is no better way to do that than to find someone who has gone through the class or is familiar with the material to sit down and go through it with you. Once comfortable with the material, you can begin the process of gathering others to go through the material with you as well. Then you encourage them to do the same. You can see the great potential in disciple-making that could result.

The only problem is the 'spectator syndrome'. Spectator syndrome happens when something like this comes along and most everyone takes the position that they want to watch others do it. Sitting back and saying, "I sure hope this goes well," will not get it done. We need to all be willing to engage the process if it is to be what West Side is all about. My prayer is that we will do just that.

If you would like to walk through this disciple-making process with someone I can be of help with that. You can reach out to Josh Clem or me and we will get with you to tell you about how you can begin making disciples who make disciples.

"Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." Matthew 28:19

EMERGENCY SERVICES BREAKFAST

Last Friday, May 19th, the West Side congregation held the 19th consecutive Annual Emergency Services Breakfast in the Family Center. Each year during Law Enforcement Week, we serve breakfast to honor those who serve our community. Those we served included the Police Dept., Sheriff Dept., State Police, Fire Dept., Ambulance Services, and 911. 142 people were served. We would like to thank the following men who helped cook, serve, decorate, and clean up: Bill Grant, Edward Lewis, Frank Foster, Thom Robinson, Ronnie Russell, Joe Russell, Herb Taylor, and Tim Tripp. Thank you for your service!

THANK YOU

Thanks to everyone who made a donation to Camp Caudle, prepared a meal, visited, gave money and sent flowers, cards, or texts to our family. Most importantly, thank you for your kind words and encouragement during our time of loss. Jim Bentley loved the members of this church and so do we. Our family feels fortunate to be a part of such a caring congregation. We thank God everyday for our blessings and sincerely appreciate your kindness. -The Jim Bentley Family

Jim Martin (Harding School of Theology) will be here to bring our first lesson at 6:30pm. Please contact the church office if you can help.

DIOS LE BENDIGA (GOD BLESS YOU)

BY ARIS ORTIZ

"He has showed you, O man, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God" Micah 7:2

"Though the fig tree does not bud and there are no grapes on the vines, though the olive crop fails and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen and no cattle in the stalls, yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will be joyful in God my Savior." Habakkuk 3:17-18

I know there is a great message here! how deep can we go?
