DIOS LE BENDIGA

(God Bless you)

Blessings to you my brother, my sister, my friends at West Side! God is Good. God is Powerful. God is Merciful. There is not even a drop of doubt that He is working in our life.
Every single day God is doing miracles and today we are witnessing about God's Glory and intervention and for Him having you and me here worshipping Him together with so much joy and singing praises to His Glory in English and Spanish. It is so wonderful to have West Side as our family.

Thank you and we love you!

SEPTEMBER 25, 2016

One God

By Tim Tripp

One God

Creator, sustainer, almighty, all-powerful, three-in-one.

Father

Loving, all knowing, reproofing, disciplining, longs to be reconciled to his children, runs to greet them when they return home.

Son

God in flesh, in nature God but lowered Himself to become a servant, drawn to the sick, poor, overlooked, underprivileged, forgiver of sins, gave his life so that the children of God might have the opportunity to return home.

Holy Spirit

Divine presence of God within man, counselor, guide, empowering, speech giving, encouraging, wields the power of God within the body of a believer, points the Christian in the direction of home.

I know it seems confusing but think that as we are made in the image of God, we have distinct parts with boundaries and functions as well. We have a mind, a body and a spirit. With the mind we have the ability to think, process, rationalize and compile. With the body we can work, eat, move, play, show affection, display emotion, hurt others or defend others. With the spirit we discern right and wrong, manage our behavior, consider the needs of others, worship, and pray. All of those parts of us have independent functions but all are also interdependent on each other.

Isn't it interesting that God exists in a similar way, one God in three persons? Of course there are differences, in that He is not limited to time and space and can be everywhere at once. He can also place different parts of Him in different places but still remain connected. All of His parts can function independently but all are still unified into one in a similar way as we are. We serve one God and only one but we can interact with Him as Father, Son or Holy Spirit to help guide us to our home with Him.
